Challenge 251: Chatty Classmates

Mrs Green is teaching a class of eight students, which she knows consists of four pairs of "Best Friends". She needs to divide them into pairs for an activity, but she also knows that if she puts any pair of best friends together then they will chat all lesson and get no work done.

How many ways can she put them into productive pairs?